

Campsites are arranged according to their REGIONS and Departments (which have Department numbers associated with them). A Map of Regions and Departments is on the front page and other maps are at the end of the guide. Each campsite has its location, our opinion, phone numbers, web sites and email; some email addresses have to be accessed from the websites. Pictures are at the end in sequence of Regions. If online, access the websites by Ctl/click. This Guide is taken from my more extensive online Camping guide. This has itineraries for each year and links to extensive sets of pictures for each year: <http://www.chris-anthony.co.uk/camphols.html>
